

- 39 "All right, we'll take a packet of ginger, one of chocolate and the shortcake and those
A B C chocolates and sweets."
D X
- 40 He laid a pound note on the counter. Slowly the girl counted out the change.
A B C D X
- 41 It was irish money, which Alex was not yet used to, but he scooped it up without checking
A B C and seizing the bag.
D X
- 42 with their purchases marched to the door. Come on, you two."
A B C
Robin and Naomi thought that rude.
D X

From The Growing Summer by Noel Streatfeild

In this extract, the letter below the best word or words needs to be chosen, so the extract makes sense and uses correct English. Mark your answer in your answer booklet.

- 43 Ben wouldn't couldn't would've shouldn't could've wait for the end of the day
A B C D E
- 44 when his mum and dad were where was would when collecting him from school.
A B C D E
- 45 It was his birthday and he had been promising told to promise sold promised a new horse
A B C D E
- 46 of his choose like choice want prefer.
A B C D E
- 47 He had dreamt waiting dreaming wish hope about this moment.
A B C D E
- 48 His horse was going to be as if like his best a better as much like friend.
A B C D E
- 49 they were going to be considered complete careful calm constant companions.
A B C D E
- 50 But first he had to weigh wait weight wish waited for his mum and dad to collect him!
A B C D E