

Q.	Answer	Mark	Additional Guidance
5.	insects and spiders both have an external skeleton (exoskeleton) insects have a body divided into three parts spiders have a body divided into two parts insects have three pairs of legs, spiders have four pairs of legs spiders hunt and kill prey insects have a variety of different ways of feeding	5	any five examples note: at least 1 mark should be given for similarities
6.	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>flower</th> <th>name</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>a</td> <td>lesser celandine</td> </tr> <tr> <td>b</td> <td>primrose</td> </tr> <tr> <td>c</td> <td>bluebell</td> </tr> <tr> <td>d</td> <td>deadnettle</td> </tr> <tr> <td>e</td> <td>daffodil</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	flower	name	a	lesser celandine	b	primrose	c	bluebell	d	deadnettle	e	daffodil	5
flower	name
a	lesser celandine
b	primrose
c	bluebell
d	deadnettle
e	daffodil
7. (a)	there is a gentle rise in numbers for the first four hours followed by a much steeper rise between hours four and ten	2
(b)	warm temperature food (i.e. the beef soup)	1 1
(c)	the growth of the population slows becomes steady then it starts to fall	3													