2 Study Figure 2 and Figure 3 about the holiday island of Ibiza.

Figure 2

Origin of tourists arriving in Ibiza

Until the 1970s, the island of Ibiza was a select holiday spot for the rich and famous. Nowadays, 1.75 million visitors head to the Mediterranean island each summer. Many are attracted by its reputation as the nightlife capital of the world. They come not to relax but to party and enjoy a holiday in the sun with dancing till dawn. In Ibiza Town or San Antonio, venues such as Privilege attract thousands of young clubbers.

As an alternative, Ibiza's west coast is where you can head for an activity holiday amid dramatic coastal scenery. Portinatx in the north is about as far away as you can get from the hectic nightlife. The south-east coast, just 30 minutes from the airport, is a destination for families, with its extensive beaches, excursions and tours to every part of the island, and nice bars, cafes and shopping.
