The questions below should be seen as starting points for personal investigations in which you make reference to critical and contextual material with which you are familiar.

Choose one of the following questions.

1 Elongated Forms

Artists and designers have elongated forms in various ways, from Alberto Giacometti's spindly, fragile figures to Charles Rennie Mackintosh's furniture. Bernard Buffet, Amedeo Modigliani and Germaine Richier also elongated the human figure in distinctive ways. Investigate such work and produce a personal response.

2 Multiple Panels

Many artists have produced work across several surfaces. Examples include altarpieces by Grünewald and Memlinc, paintings by Hieronymus Bosch, and social commentaries by Otto Dix and Max Beckmann. From your investigations develop a personal response to this theme.

3 The Chair

Chairs can vary from the ornate to the utilitarian. Thomas Chippendale, Gerrit Rietveld and Todd Falkowsky created chairs using different materials. Van Gogh, David Hockney and Tracey Emin have produced highly individual work based on a chair. Research relevant examples and produce a personal response.

4 Oceanic Art

Intricately carved and stylised masks, figures, jewellery and weapons are a feature of the art of the South Pacific Islands. Gods, spirits and ancestors were represented in various ways. Consider examples from this culture and use them as a basis for your own work.

5 Disguise

Individuals use clothing and make-up to disguise or change their image. Artists such as Yasumasa Morimura, Cindy Sherman and Jacques Callot have explored the theme of disguise. Research this topic and, from your observations, produce a personal response.

6 Sculptural Head Wear

There are many examples of head wear, from ornate crowns and helmets to exotic headdresses from different cultures. Designers Philip Treacy, Stephen Jones and Jean-Louis Scherrer have constructed bizarre hats that may be considered sculptural head wear. Extravagant hats have also been designed for theatrical productions, especially pantomimes. Look at appropriate examples and develop your own response to this theme.

7 Geometry of the Landscape

Many artists and photographers have produced work based on the geometric patterns, rhythms and shapes seen in the natural landscape. Research appropriate examples of work by artists such as Cézanne, Mondrian, W. Heaton Cooper and Hokusai and by the photographer Joe Cornish. From your research produce your own interpretation of this theme.

8 Celtic Art

Abstract ornamentation and decoration are significant features of Celtic Art. These have been a rich source of inspiration for artists, craftspeople and designers. Research appropriate examples and produce your own work on this theme.
