The questions below should be seen as starting points for personal investigations in which you make reference to critical and contextual material with which you are familiar.

Choose one of the following questions.

1 The Standing Figure

Representations of the standing figure by Donatello and Antony Gormley have their own distinctive character and presence. Edgar Degas was concerned with poise and balance, while the photographer Rineke Dijkstra portrays human vulnerability. Research examples and develop your own response to The Standing Figure.

2 Inspired by Natural Forms

The origin of many designs and inventions may be traced back to nature. Joseph Paxton's iron framework for the Crystal Palace was inspired by a giant water lily; the cocoa bean was allegedly the inspiration for Alex Samuelson's classic Coca-Cola bottle; while Leonardo's proposal for a tank is reminiscent of the shell of a tortoise. Investigate such work and produce your own design inspired by natural forms.

3 Punk

The punk movement challenged conventions in music, fashion and design. Vivienne Westwood produced garments incorporating text and unusual items. Jamie Reid's punk graphics included distinctive collage work. Examine aspects of the punk movement and produce your own response.

4 Fairies

Many artists and illustrators have depicted fairies. Richard Dadd and Henry Fuseli are noted for their distinctive images. Theatre designers have created striking costumes for Titania and Oberon in 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', and Arthur Rackham produced lavish illustrations. Investigate appropriate examples and develop your own response to the theme of Fairies.

5 Windows

Windows are an important feature of any building. They can range from medieval stained glass to contemporary utilitarian examples. Artists such as Edward Hopper and Richard Estes have made a feature of windows in their paintings. Architects such as Le Corbusier and Mies van der Rohe explored the creative potential of windows in their buildings. From your research, develop work based on this theme.

6 Music and Art

Walt Disney's 'Fantasia' dramatically demonstrates the connection between art and music, and many artists have claimed music as their inspiration. Wassily Kandinsky responded to the music of Schönberg; Frank Stella was influenced by jazz; Sean Scully by rhythm and blues, and Chris Ofili by Bob Marley and Stevie Wonder. Research appropriate examples and produce a response inspired by music of your choice.

7 Art of Tibet

The art of Tibet is a rich source of inspiration for artists and designers. Temples are decorated with intricate carvings and highly patterned and colourful designs, while collections of prayer flags are reminiscent of contemporary installation art. Research examples and produce your own response to the Art of Tibet.

8 Storms and the Landscape

Adverse weather conditions may have a significant impact on our view of landscapes. Violent storms can produce unusual lighting effects and create dramatic scenes which have intrigued both artists and photographers. Consider work by artists such as Salvator Rosa, John Martin, J.M.W. Turner and Kurt Jackson and produce a personal response to this topic.
