
A-level

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND

LITERATURE

(7707/2)

Paper 2: Exploring Conflict

Specimen 2015

Morning Time allowed: 2 hours 30 minutes

Materials

For this paper you must have:

- an AQA 12-page answer booklet
- a copy of the set texts you have studied for Section A and Section B. These texts must not be annotated and must not contain additional notes or materials.

Instructions

- Use black ink or black ball-point pen.
- Write the information required on the front of your answer book. The Examining Body for this paper is AQA. The Paper Reference is 7707/2.
- There are two sections:
Section A: Writing about Society
Section B: Dramatic Encounters
- Answer three questions in total: two questions from Section A and one question from Section B.
- Do all rough work in your answer book. Cross through any work that you do not want to be marked.

Information

- The maximum mark for this paper is 100.
- The marks for questions are shown in brackets. There are 55 marks in total for the questions in Section A and 45 marks for the question in Section B.
- You will be marked on your ability to:
 - use good English
 - organise information clearly
 - use specialist vocabulary where appropriate.

Advice

- It is recommended that you spend 1 hour and 20 minutes on Section A and 1 hour and 10 minutes on Section B.
-

Section AWriting about Society

Answer on one text in this section.

Answer both questions on your chosen text.

EitherInto the Wild – Jon Krakauer

0	1
---	---

Read the opening of Chapter One from ‘Jim Gallien had driven four miles out of Fairbanks’ to ‘he couldn’t wait to head out there and get started’.

Here the writer describes the meeting between Gallien, a working man travelling to Anchorage, and Alex, who is hitchhiking.

Recast this description into an account that Gallien might give to his wife later that evening.

You should write about 300 words.

In your transformation you should consider:

- Gallien’s perspective of the meeting, his views on Alex and attitudes towards travellers
- Gallien’s relationship with his wife in the way he conveys his recent experience.

[25 marks]

and

0	2
---	---

Write a commentary explaining the decisions you have made in transforming the base text for this new account and the effects of reshaping Krakauer’s original description.

You should write about 400 words.

In your commentary you should:

- consider how you have used language to shape your intended meaning
- demonstrate the connections between the base text and your transformed text
- structure your writing clearly to express your ideas.

[30 marks]

or

The Suspicions of Mr Whicher OR the Murder at Road Hill House – Kate Summerscale

0 3

Read the section of the Prologue from ‘Paddington station was a shining vault’ to ‘his account was the first published description of Whicher, indeed of any English detective’. This describes Mr Whicher’s early detective work.

Recast these details into an account of Mr Whicher that Louisa Moutot might give to a fellow prisoner.

You should write about 300 words.

In your transformation you should consider:

- Louisa Moutot’s impressions of Mr Whicher
- her attitudes to ‘the detective force’ and to her life as a criminal.

[25 marks]

and

0 4

Write a commentary explaining the decisions you have made in transforming the base text for this new account and the effects of reshaping Summerscale’s original description.

You should write about 400 words.

In your commentary you should:

- consider how you have used language to shape your intended meaning
- demonstrate the connections between the base text and your transformed text
- structure your writing clearly to express your ideas.

[30 marks]

Turn over for the next question

or

The Great Gatsby* – F. Scott Fitzgerald

0 5

Read the section of Chapter One from ‘the only completely stationary object’ to ‘you must know Gatsby’. This describes Nick’s lunch at Tom and Daisy Buchanan’s house.

Recast this narration of events from the perspective of Miss Baker, Daisy’s friend, who is also visiting the Buchanans.

You should write about 300 words.

In your transformation you should consider:

- Miss Baker’s first impressions of Nick
- her attitude to the Buchanans.

[25 marks]

and

0 6

Write a commentary explaining the decisions you have made in transforming the base text for this new account and the effects of reshaping Fitzgerald’s original description.

You should write about 400 words.

In your commentary you should:

- consider how you have used language to shape your intended meaning
- demonstrate the connections between the base text and your transformed text
- structure your writing clearly to express your ideas.

[30 marks]

or

The Kite Runner* – Khaled Hosseini

0 7

Read Chapter Two from ‘It was in that small shack’ to ‘I have seen old donkeys better suited to be a husband’. This describes the circumstances of Hassan’s birth and his mother’s desertion of the family.

Imagine that there is a journalist covering Hassan’s story many years later. Recast Sanaubar’s account of running away into a description she might give the journalist.

You should write about 300 words.

In your transformation you should consider:

- Sanaubar’s perspective on her marriage
- how she views other characters.

[25 marks]

and

0 8

Write a commentary explaining the decisions you have made in transforming the base text for this new account and the effects of reshaping Hosseini’s original description.

You should write about 400 words.

In your commentary you should:

- consider how you have used language to shape your intended meaning
- demonstrate the connections between the base text and your transformed text
- structure your writing clearly to express your ideas.

[30 marks]

Turn over for the next question

Section BDramatic Encounters

Answer one question in this section.

Othello* – William Shakespeare*Either

0	9
---	---

Refer to Act 1, Scene 3, beginning 'Wilt thou be fast to my hopes' and ending 'must bring monstrous birth to the world's light'.

This interaction occurs near the end of the scene. Iago is persuading Roderigo to follow him to Cyprus.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Shakespeare presents manipulative behaviour throughout the play.

[45 marks]or

1	0
---	---

Refer to Act 4, Scene 3, beginning 'O these men, these men' and ending 'The ills we do, their ills instruct us so'.

This interaction occurs near the end of the scene. Emilia is helping Desdemona to prepare for bed.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Shakespeare presents characters' contrasting views of marriage throughout the play.

[45 marks]All My Sons* – Arthur Miller*or

1	1
---	---

Refer to Act 2, beginning 'Then why'd you ship them out' and ending 'My Chris'.

This interaction occurs near the end of Act 2. Keller's part in the decision to ship faulty parts to the American Air Force has just been revealed.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Miller presents conflicting ideas about responsibility throughout the play.

[45 marks]or

1	2
---	---

Refer to Act 1, beginning 'Well, I'm working on his horoscope' and ending 'It's an honourable profession'.

This interaction occurs near the beginning of Act 1. Keller is in his garden with his neighbours, Jim and Frank.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Miller uses characters' conflicting beliefs throughout the play.

[45 marks]A Streetcar Named Desire – Tennessee Williamsor*1 3

Refer to Scene 2, beginning 'What's all this monkey doings?' and ending 'Let's see the papers!'

This interaction occurs at the beginning of the scene. Stanley is expressing his unhappiness to Stella about Blanche's arrival in Elysian Fields.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Williams uses marital conflict throughout the play.

[45 marks]or*1 4

Refer to Scene 7, beginning 'What's all this stuff for?' and ending 'Some lily she is.'

This interaction occurs at the beginning of the scene. Stella is preparing Blanche's birthday party.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Williams presents tension between characters throughout the play.

[45 marks]The Herd – Rory Kinnearor*1 5

Refer to the lines beginning 'And is he in the bus?' and ending 'bye then'.

This telephone conversation occurs at the start of the play. Carol is arranging the details of her son's visit home with his carers.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Kinnear presents characters' lack of control throughout the play.

[45 marks]or*1 6

Refer to the lines beginning 'Mark, can I get you anything [to drink]' and ending 'Oh yes, oh the fun we had'.

This interaction occurs after Patricia's dialogue with Ian, where she has outlined the long-term effects of the desertion of his family.

Referring to these lines and other parts of the play, explore how and why Kinnear presents tension between characters throughout the play.

[45 marks]END OF QUESTIONS

Turn over ▶

There are no questions printed on this page
