Answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B.

Write between 600 and 900 words for each composition.

Section A: Narrative/Descriptive/Imaginative Writing

- 1 Think of a piece of music you know well. Describe the memories and feelings it brings to mind.
- 2 Write two diary extracts (between 300–450 words each) for the same day. One of the extracts is written by a wealthy member of a community; the other is written by a poor person of the same community. Each extract should record the lifestyle and feelings of the writer.
- 3 Write two contrasting pieces (between 300–450 words each), one which describes a particular place at the end of a war or natural disaster and one which describes the way it looks after being rebuilt. In your writing you should try to bring out contrasts in mood and atmosphere.
- 4 Write the opening to a story called ‘The Dream’. In your writing you should try to bring out an atmosphere built on the use of colour and sound.

Section B: Discursive/Argumentative Writing

- 5 You have been invited by your community to speak about the ways in which the local area and its facilities could be made more attractive for residents and tourists. Write your speech, offering clear reasons for your ideas.
- 6 If you were able to create a new country, what kind of society and laws would you wish to see in place – and why?
- 7 ‘Charity concerts do more harm than good.’ What is your view?
- 8 You have been invited to contribute to a radio programme in which participants will describe their least favourite cultural experiences. You will have to talk about two of the following, offering reasons for your opinions: the worst book you have read; the worst film or television programme you have watched; the worst piece of art you have seen. Write your talk.
