ELL4: Drama pre-1770

P.M. THURSDAY, 19 January 2006

(1½ hours)

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

In addition to this examination paper, you will need:

- a copy of the text you have studied in order to answer the questions on this paper;
- an 8 page answer book.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Answer one question. Answer part (a) and part (b) of your chosen question.

You are advised to spend equal time on each part of your chosen question.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

All questions carry equal marks. Within each question, part (a) and part (b) are equally weighted.

In this unit you will be assessed on your ability to:

- communicate clearly the knowledge, understanding and insights gained from combined literary and linguistic study, using appropriate terminology and accurate written expression;
- use and evaluate different literary and linguistic approaches to the study of written and spoken language, showing how these approaches inform your readings;
- show understanding of the ways contextual variation and choices of form, style and vocabulary shape the meanings of texts;
- identify and consider the ways attitudes and values are created and conveyed in speech and writing.

Remember that marking will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers.

Answer one question.

Shakespeare: King Lear

Either,

1. Remind yourself of Act 2 scene 2 lines 38 to 100, from “Help, ho! Murder! Help!” to “...That stretch their duties nicely.”
 - (a) Discuss Shakespeare’s use of literary and linguistic techniques in conveying conflict between the characters in this extract.
