OCR Advanced GCE H469 Unit F654

OCR Advanced Subsidiary GCE H069 Unit F652

Instructions relating to the Marking and Moderation of Coursework

A. Documentation

Attention is drawn to the following documents:

- (a) the Assessment Guidelines;
- (b) General Coursework Regulations and Procedures in the Administrative Guide and Entry Procedures Folder 2006;
- (c) the Coursework Cover Sheets CCS306 (unit F652) and CCS331 (unit F654)
- (d) the Centre Authentication Form for coursework CCS160
- (e) form MS1

B. Internal Standardisation

Where more than one teacher in the Centre has marked the work for a particular coursework unit, the Centre must standardise the marking in order to ensure that candidates who have demonstrated the same level of attainment receive the same mark and that the rank order of the coursework marks for the Centre as a whole is appropriate.

C. Submission of Marks

OCR will send Centres internal assessment mark sheets (MS1) for the submission of coursework marks, along with instructions for completing and returning the mark sheets. Coursework marks may also be submitted electronically by EDI. The dates for despatch of MS1 mark sheets and for submission of coursework marks are for the summer series, 15th May; for the winter series, 10th January. Centres must ensure that they keep a copy of their coursework marks.

D. Moderation

Moderator address labels will be sent to Centres shortly before the coursework mark submission date. Where the Centre has 10 or fewer candidates entered for a coursework unit all the candidates' work should be sent to the Moderator with a copy of the internal assessment mark sheet(s). Where there are more than 10 candidates, the Centre should send all marks to the Moderator by the mark submission deadline and keep the work secure. The Moderator, once he/she has received the marks from the Centre, will contact the Centre to request a sample of work. Centres should respond promptly to any requests for work from the Moderator. The MS1 sent to the moderator must be accompanied by a completed Centre Authentication Form for coursework. A report on the outcome of the moderation will be sent to Centres at the time results are issued

E. Assessment Guidelines

- (a) The aim should always be to arrive at a single overall mark out of 40 that fairly reflects the achievement of the folder of work taken as a whole.
- (b) Refer to the coursework mark band descriptions (see pages 4-5 of these guidelines) and use the 'best-fit' principle to locate work within the appropriate mark band. Note that assessments refer to bands and not grades: this applies both to coursework and externally assessed units.
- (c) Bear in mind also that quality of written communication must also be taken into account when assessing overall achievement.
- (d) Mark positively and use the full range of marks, particularly at Band 1. Locate folders firmly within the band and use the lowest mark in a band only if the work is of borderline quality.
- (e) Once a final mark has been arrived at, look again at the mark band descriptions. Does the overall mark out of 40 fairly reflect the achievement of the whole folder?

Coursework mark band descriptions

The band descriptions for each of the AS coursework units are printed on pages 3 and 4 of these guidelines. These are adapted from the generic mark band descriptions which appear in the specification and which form the basis of mark schemes for all units.

Schemes of Assessment

AS Unit F652: Texts and Audiences

40% of the total AS GCE marks Coursework: 40 marks

Candidates are required to submit a coursework folder of a maximum 3000 words. There are two tasks:

Task 1: an analytical essay on a study of one written and one multimodal text;

Task 2: adaptive writing with a supporting commentary.

Task 1: Text Study (20 marks)

Candidates are required to produce one essay where they discuss the key linguistic and stylistic features of one written and one multimodal text. Comment on both texts should be made on:

- context, audience and purpose;
- key linguistic and stylistic features.

Candidates are assessed on:

AO1: select and apply a range of linguistic methods; communicate relevant knowledge using appropriate terminology; coherent and accurate written expression.

AO2: critical understanding of a range of concepts and issues related to the construction and analysis of meanings in spoken and written language; use of linguistic approaches.

AO3: analysis and evaluation of the influence of contextual factors on the production and reception of spoken and written language; knowledge of the key constituents of language.

Task 2: Adaptive Writing and Commentary (20 marks)

Candidates select either the written or the multimodal text from Task 1 and

- reproduce it, making it suitable for an audience and/or purpose that is different to that of the original text;
- produce an accompanying commentary that explains the linguistic and stylistic changes and the difficulties encountered in producing the adapted text.

The adapted text can be produced in any of the three modes: spoken, written or multimodal. It can be in the same mode as the original or it may be in a different mode.

Candidates are assessed on:

AO1: select and apply a range of linguistic methods; communicate relevant knowledge using appropriate terminology; coherent and accurate written expression.

AO4: demonstrate expertise and creativity in the use of English in a range of different contexts, informed by linguistic study.

Assessment Criteria: please refer to Appendix B2 at the back of this specification.

Schemes of Assessment

A2 Unit F654: Media Language

20% of the total Advanced GCE marks Coursework 40 marks

Candidates are required to submit a coursework folder of a maximum of 3000 words. There are two tasks:

- Task 1: an analytical essay;
- Task 2: original writing with a supporting commentary.

Task 1: Independent investigation: comparison and analysis (20 marks)

Candidates are required to produce one essay where they compare and analyse the generic linguistic and stylistic features of one written, one spoken and one multimodal media text, linked by a common theme or topic.

Candidates are expected to make a comparative analysis of the three texts and:

- analyse meaning using knowledge of linguistic approaches;
- demonstrate knowledge of the key constituents of language: phonological, lexical, morphological and grammatical features;
- discuss context, audience and purpose, showing how these have affected linguistic choice.

Candidates are assessed on:

AO1: select and apply a range of linguistic methods; communicate relevant knowledge using appropriate terminology; coherent and accurate written expression.

AO2: critical understanding of a range of concepts and issues related to the construction and analysis of meanings in spoken and written language; use of linguistic approaches.

AO3: analysis and evaluation of the influence of contextual factors on the production and reception of spoken and written language; knowledge of the key constituents of language.

Task 2: Original writing and commentary (20 marks)

Candidates produce:

- one item of original media writing in one of the three modes (written/spoken/multimodal) studied;
- an accompanying commentary that explains how their own writing incorporates the linguistic and stylistic features identified in Task 1.

Candidates are assessed on:

AO2: critical understanding of a range of concepts and issues related to the construction and analysis of meanings in spoken and written language; use of linguistic approaches.

AO4: demonstrate expertise and creativity in the use of English in a range of different contexts, informed by linguistic study.
