Answer one question from this section.

REMINDER: The film used as the basis for your answer to Section B may not be used in your answer to Section A.

German and Soviet Cinema in the 1920s

Make reference to Nosferatu and/or Strike. You must refer to a minimum of three appropriate films in total, including at least one from German and one from Soviet Cinema.

1. Is it sufficient to say that German Cinema is defined by its use of mise-en-scène and Soviet Cinema by montage editing?

or

2. How important is it to understand the context within which German and Soviet films of the 1920s were produced?

Neo-Realism in Italy and Beyond

Make reference to Bicycle Thieves and/or The Tree of Wooden Clogs. You must refer to a minimum of three appropriate films in total.

3. Besides the documentary look, what would you say characterises neo-realist cinema?

or

4. Discuss the significance of the different contexts in which the neo-realist films you have studied were produced.

Japanese Cinema: 1950-1970

Make reference to Rashomon and/or Tokyo Drifter. You must refer to a minimum of three appropriate films in total.

5. How far are the films you have studied for this topic different from mainstream Hollywood films? You may refer to specific extracts from your chosen films.

or

6. ‘The tension between a traditional society and a modern one is apparent everywhere in post-war Japanese Cinema.’ To what extent have you identified such tensions in the films you have studied?

Cinematic New Waves

Make reference to A Bout de Souffle and/or Chungking Express. You must refer to a minimum of three appropriate films in total.

7. Discuss the use of sound in creating meaning and atmosphere in the New Wave films you have studied.

or

8. ‘The auteur and his or her personal preoccupations are always at the heart of a New Wave film movement.’ Do you agree?

Surrealist and Fantasy Cinema

Make reference to The Phantom of Liberty and/or Alice. You must refer to a minimum of three appropriate films in total.

9. How far do the films you have studied for this topic combine the film-makers’ individual concerns with wider social and political issues?

or

10. Discuss some of the ways in which the films you have studied for this topic explore sexual themes.

Section B: Close Study: Contemporary World Cinema (20 marks)

Answer one question from this section.

If you choose either question 11 or 12, make it clear which prescribed Close Study film you are writing on.
