THE TOWER OF LONDON

William the Conqueror needed to show Londoners his authority, and by 1080 work had begun on building the massive *White Tower, over 27 metres high, at the centre of his London fortress. Later kings, including Henry VIII, modernised and added buildings.

From 1530 onwards, Henry's conflict with the Catholic Church increased the number of religious and political prisoners in the Tower. Anne Boleyn was executed here in 1536.

Attractions include:

- the world-famous Crown Jewels (nearly stolen in 1671!), priceless symbols of British monarchy
- the "Beefeaters" standing guard and giving tours.

BRONTË PARSONAGE MUSEUM HAWORTH, WEST YORKSHIRE

The Brontës were an extraordinary literary family. The Reverend Patrick Brontë, his wife and their six children lived at the parsonage in Haworth. The two eldest daughters died in childhood, but the others survived to adulthood.

Charlotte's *Jane Eyre and Emily's *Wuthering Heights were both published in 1847 and are ranked among the greatest novels in the English language. But the father, daughter Anne and son Branwell all had works published too. The Brontës were a close family and the dramatic landscape of the surrounding moors provided them with inspiration for their writing.

The parsonage, a museum since 1928, was one of the largest houses in Haworth at the time and their home from 1820 to 1861. Twelve rooms have been restored to their original appearance with furniture, manuscripts and personal items.

Several large car parks nearby.

TREKKING IN LADAKH

Want the holiday of a lifetime? Then join one of our summer trekking groups to Ladakh, the fabulous region in the Himalayas now visited by over 18,000 tourists every year.

Although in India, Ladakh is known as Little Tibet because of its cultural and geographical similarities with Tibet. At between 2500 and 5000 metres, it's a land of stunning mountains and wild scenery. Summers are short and some roads are only open from June to mid-October.

Typical treks last 5–6 hours per day and can be tiring, so you must have a good level of fitness. Your luggage is carried for you, so you only need a daypack and strong walking boots.

- Marvel at ancient monasteries and Buddhist culture from the 2nd century
- See village life as it really is
- Visit a typical festival and try the local food

Daily flights from Delhi to Leh (largest city).
