(Questions start overleaf)

Option A: The United Kingdom and the United States America

Section A: The US Constitution

Study the source below and answer the question that follows.

Source

The Civil Rights Act and Voting Rights Act effectively ended segregation after a lengthy campaign. Finally, the 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution were being applied. Did this mean that the Constitution, belatedly, provided freedom and equality of opportunity for all? Some in the African-American community expressed the view that the new acts would be insufficient to end 200 years of segregation and discrimination. The denial of freedom and equality could not meaningfully be overcome by the passage of two pieces of legislation.

- 1 With reference to the Source and any other relevant information you have studied, discuss the view that the US Constitution has failed to deliver freedom and equality for all American citizens. [30]

Section B: Government in the UK and the USA

Answer all four questions.

- 2 Explain what is meant by the term “judicial review”. Support your answer with a relevant example. [5]

- 3 Explain the reasons why members of Congress spend so much time on constituency work. [10]

- 4 Compare and contrast the House of Commons and the House of Representatives as scrutiny bodies. [25]

- 5 Either
 - (a) “Prime Ministerial advisers have much less influence than Presidential advisers.” Evaluate this view. [30]

 - (b) “There are fewer differences today between the powers of the US President and the UK Prime Minister.” Evaluate this view. [30]

Section A: The Irish Constitution

Source

The State recognises the Family as the natural, primary and fundamental unit of Society... The State therefore guarantees to protect the Family... The State pledges itself to guard with special care the institution of Marriage, on which the Family is founded, and to protect it against attack.
