GCE A Level ICT Unit G062 – Structured ICT Tasks

We are aware that many centres would like to plan and prepare their work for the next academic year during the summer term. Therefore, we will make available the final June 2013 series structured task and data files for Unit G062, together with an FAQ and teacher guidance document, via OCR Interchange from 2 July 2012.

We have also received feedback that centres would appreciate more time to carry out the assessment of this unit. In response to this feedback, we have moved away from despatching the mark scheme in a hard copy format. The June 2013 series mark scheme will be made available via OCR Interchange in February 2013. Instead of centres having to print multiple copies of the mark scheme, we have reintroduced the G062 coversheet – one should be completed per candidate.

It is important to reiterate that the mark scheme is confidential and must not be accessed by any centre assessor(s) until all candidates from your centre have completed and handed in all their work for G062. No further work must be done after the centre assessor has had sight of the mark scheme.
