MARK SCHEME

General Marking Instructions

Introduction

Mark schemes are published to assist teachers and students in their preparation for examinations. Through the mark schemes teachers and students will be able to see what examiners are looking for in response to questions and exactly where the marks have been awarded. The publishing of the mark schemes may help to show that examiners are not concerned about finding out what a student does not know but rather with rewarding students for what they do know.

The Purpose of Mark Schemes

Examination papers are set and revised by teams of examiners and revisers appointed by the Council. The teams of examiners and revisers include experienced teachers who are familiar with the level and standards expected of students in schools and colleges.

The job of the examiners is to set the questions and the mark schemes; and the job of the revisers is to review the questions and mark schemes commenting on a large range of issues about which they must be satisfied before the question papers and mark schemes are finalised.

The questions and the mark schemes are developed in association with each other so that the issues of differentiation and positive achievement can be addressed right from the start. Mark schemes, therefore, are regarded as part of an integral process which begins with the setting of questions and ends with the marking of the examination.

The main purpose of the mark scheme is to provide a uniform basis for the marking process so that all the markers are following exactly the same instructions and making the same judgements in so far as this is possible. Before marking begins a standardising meeting is held where all the markers are briefed using the mark scheme and samples of the students' work in the form of scripts. Consideration is also given at this stage to any comments on the operational papers received from teachers and their organisations. During this meeting, and up to and including the end of the marking, there is provision for amendments to be made to the mark scheme. What is published represents this final form of the mark scheme.

It is important to recognise that in some cases there may well be other correct responses which are equally acceptable to those published: the mark scheme can only cover those responses which emerged in the examination. There may also be instances where certain judgements may have to be left to the experience of the examiner, for example, where there is no absolute correct response – all teachers will be familiar with making such judgements.

Éadaí athlámhe

Nuair a bhíonn seanéadaí le caitheamh amach agat, cad é an rud is fearr a dhéanamh? Iad a chur i mála agus iad a thabhairt do (a) charthanas, ar ndóigh. Ní mar a shíltear (b) a bhítear áfach.

Síleann muid go dtéann an t-airgead chuig na daoine is mó a bhfuil cuidiú de dhíth orthu agus, cuid den am, is amhlaidh a bhíonn an scéal. Ar an lámh eile, in amanna, téann an t-airgead a dhéantar as (c) díol na n-éadaí chuig lucht gnó a shaothraíonn na mílte punt dá bharr.

Rinneadh cúpla clár teilifíse ar na mallaibh a thug léargas ar chúrsaí éadaí athlámhe agus a chuir iontas agus samhnas ar chuid mhór daoine. Ba léir ón (d) iniúchadh a rinneadh ar na cláir go raibh cuid mhór (e) míchleachtais ag baint le cuid de na gnólachtaí neamhoifigiúla a théann thart go rialta agus a chuireann málaí dubha isteach ar an doras. Tugadh le (f) fios fosta nach dtéann an t-airgead uilig ó dhíol na n-éadaí chuig daoine bochta sa Tríú Domhan. In amanna, (g) díoltar na héadaí le díoltóirí eile agus ní fhaigheann lucht carthanachta ná na daoine bochta cuid ar bith den (h) bhrabús.

Sula dtugann tú do sheanéadaí d'eagraíocht ar bith, ní (i) dochar rud beag taighde a dhéanamh ar an eagraíocht agus tú féin a chur ar do shuaimhneas nach lucht calaoise a bheas ag baint (j) sochar as na geansaithe agus as na cótaí seanchaite sin atá ina luí ag bun do chófra.

4 Translation into Target Language

Notes to Examiners

- 1 This mark scheme should be read in conjunction with the Instructions to Assistant Examiners, in particular the references to annotation of candidates' work.
- 2 To facilitate marking, the text can be divided into six sections. Mark off these sections within the script before starting to mark. The total number of marks available for the question [20] has been tripled to a working total of 60 marks. The translation should be assessed by applying the description of performance grid, set out below, in each of the six sections. Examiners are asked to place each section in a band and award a mark. To facilitate totalling, that mark should be recorded as a sub-total in the right-hand margin, level with section slash.

Insert the total at the end of the translation. Divide by 3 to give a mark out of twenty; the final mark should be transferred, ringed, to the top right-hand corner of the candidate's script.

$\frac{1}{3}$ should be rounded down and $\frac{2}{3}$ should be rounded up.

- 3 Ticks over relevant section(s) must indicate positive marks to be awarded. Errors should be underlined, infelicities indicated by a wavy line. Ticks should indicate where marks are being awarded. If alternatives are offered, only the first should be credited.
- 4 Credit should be given for other valid responses not set out in "Suggested Translation".
- 5 Repeated or consequential errors should be ringed.

5	The presentation of original information in the target language is very good. Grammar, structures and accuracy are of a very high order.	9–10
4	Faithful rendering, evidence of some minor errors. Lexis and structures used confidently.	7–8
3	Satisfactory attempt overall and more than half of the information has been accurately conveyed.	5–6
2	Limited in terms of language. Inaccuracies may be frequent and serious. Less than half the information has been conveyed. Some use of English evident.	3–4
1	Little or no attempt to comply with the demands of the task. Gaps are evident with over-dependence on use of English.	0–2

4 Translation Grid for the Mark Scheme

The translation is divided into 6 sections. Each section is worth 10 marks. The total is then divided by 3 to give a mark out of 20.

1	Ireland is famous for being a wet country. In many places here it rains for one hundred and fifty days a year.	Tá clú agus cáil ar Éirinn mar thír fhliuch. I gcuib mhór áiteanna anseo bíonn sé ag cur fearthainne ar feadh céad caoga lá sa bhliain.
2	In the hills and mountains that figure increases to two hundred and twenty five.	Sna cnoc agus sna sléibhte téann an figiúr sin suas go dhá chéad fiche a cúig.
3	We have lakes, streams and rivers and you would think that there would never be a water shortage at any time.	Tá lochanna, sruthanna agus aibhneacha againn agus shílfeá nach mbeadh ganntanas uisce ann in am ar bith.
4	When dry weather lasts for six weeks, however, it is very hard to preserve the water.	Nuair a mhaireann aimsir thirim ar feadh sé seachtaine, áfach, bíonn sé iontach deacair an t-uisce a choinneáil.
5	As well as that, millions of gallons of water are lost as a result of the pipes being too old.	Chomh maith leis sin, cailltear na milliúin galún uisce de dheasca na píobáí a bheith róshean.
6	I suppose that is why Irish people will have to pay for their water.	Is dócha gurb é sin an fáth a gcaithfidh muintir na hÉireann díol as a gcuid uisce.

5	Candidate shows a clear understanding of the requirements of the question and a very good knowledge of the text. The question is addressed appropriately and coherently with minimum repetition and no irrelevant material. It is supported by pertinent references. Good degree of personal engagement and analysis.	33–40	Very good command of language with frequent examples of accurate and complex structures appropriate to level. Examples of idiomatic language evident. Some errors but only where more complex language is used.	9–10
4	Candidate shows a good understanding of the requirements of the question and good knowledge of the text. The question is addressed appropriately and coherently and is supported by appropriate references. Evidence of personal engagement and analysis.	25–32	Clear, well structured language much in evidence. Few basic errors and some use of more complex idiom and structure evident. Wide use of appropriate vocabulary with few misspellings.	7–8
3	Candidate shows some understanding of the requirements of the question and some knowledge of the text. The response is of a general nature, lacking structure and uneven. Information given generally lacks detail.	17–24	Some control of basic grammar and structures evident. Generally characterised by lack of complex syntax, structures and limited vocabulary including frequent misspelling. There may be some use of anglicised forms.	5–6
2	Candidate shows limited understanding of the requirements of the question and limited knowledge of the text. The response is unstructured and inconsistent. Information given is generally vague.	9–16	Frequent errors and inconsistent control of basic grammar and structures. Generally has difficulty with basic vocabulary, both general and related to the literary text. Syntax highly fractured. Reverts frequently to use of anglicised forms and English words.	3–4
1	Candidate shows little or no understanding of the requirements of the question and little or no knowledge of the text. Little or no relevant information given.	0–8	Candidate shows a predominance of grammatical and lexical errors that inhibits communication. Very limited or no command of basic vocabulary. Regular misspelling. Gaps and use of English common.	0–2
