Answer TWO questions.

- 1. Study the following and answer the questions based on it.

“The Supreme Court has not thought it necessary to reissue the Practice Statement in a fresh statement of practice in the Court’s own name. This is because it has as much effect in this Court as it did before the Appellate Committee in the House of Lords. It was part of the established jurisprudence relating to the conduct of appeals in the House of Lords which was transferred to this Court.”

Source: Lord Hope in Austin v Southwark LBC (2011)

- (a) Explain the role of the Supreme Court in the doctrine of precedent. [14]
- (b) Discuss how Courts can avoid an awkward precedent. [11]

2. Study the following and answer the questions based on it.

- 4(b) Using your knowledge of statutory interpretation, explain how a Court might approach the interpretation of these sections in light of the facts set out below. [11]

REPEAL OF IDENTITY CARDS (FICTITIOUS) ACT 2015:

Section 1      “No Identity Cards are to be issued at any time on or after 1st March 2015.”

Section 2      “All Identity Cards that are valid before 1st March 2015 are to be treated as cancelled at the end of one month.”

John had an Identity Card issued by the UK Government. He had in the past used his Identity Card as proof of his identity in raising funds from his bank. On 30th March 2015 he tried to raise cash with his bank but was refused the money as the cashier declared that he had no valid proof of identity. As a result John missed out on purchasing a valuable rare painting. Advise John.
