

Leave
blank

Section A – The UK and European Context

Answer EITHER Question 1 OR Question 2

If you answer Question 1 mark this response = .

1. (a) In pre-industrial Britain peasant sport is described as occasional and rural.

(i) Where and when would peasant sports and games take place?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(3)

Leave
blank

(ii) Outline the other main characteristics of peasant sports and games in pre-industrial Britain.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(4)

(b) What role did Oxford and Cambridge universities play in the development of sport during the 19th century?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(3)

Leave blank

(c) Explain, using examples, what is meant by opportunity, provision and esteem in terms of access to sport and recreation.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(6)

(d) How are elite sports performers supported by national sports agencies?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(4)

Leave
blank

(e) Define the term Americanisation and explain how it is affecting sport in the UK.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Leave blank

(5)

(Total 25 marks)

Q1

--	--

BLANK PAGE

7
Turn over

Leave blank

If you answer Question 2 mark this response .

2. (a) In pre-industrial Britain why were court games only played by the gentry?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(4)

(b) How was sport used as a means of social control in 19th century public schools?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

(3)

Leave
blank

(ii) Give examples of reformative policies that can be used to encourage target group participation in sport and recreation.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(4)

BLANK PAGE

Leave blank

Section B – The Olympic Case Study

Answer ONE question only from this section

3. A worldwide audience of over four billion people watched the Athens Olympics in 2004.
Discuss the effect this huge global audience has had on the Olympic Games?

(Total 25 marks)

4. Discuss the role the Olympic movement plays in promoting female participation in sport and recreation.

(Total 25 marks)

5. De Coubertin’s philosophy for establishing the modern Olympic movement was that sport could bring the world together in friendly competition.

To what extent have the games achieved De Coubertin’s ideal?

(Total 25 marks)

6. Bidding to host an Olympics games has become complex and costly.

Why are so many cities now eager to put themselves forward as potential hosts?

(Total 25 marks)

Indicate which question you are answering by marking the response .
If you change your mind, put a cross through the response and then indicate your new question by marking the response .

Chosen Question Number: Question 3 Question 4

Question 5 Question 6

Write your answer to Section B here:

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

BLANK PAGE

BLANK PAGE

BLANK PAGE

