1	Explore key themes of Black theology.	(8)
	(Total for Question 1 = 8 ma	rks)

TOTAL FOR SECTION A = 20 MARKS

SECTION B

Answer ALL questions. Write your answers in the spaces provided.

Read the following passage before answering the questions.

What you believe has a very significant impact on life and thought...how deeply we hold our beliefs, and the impact that they make on everything. Dawkins is right – beliefs are critical. We base our lives on them; they shape our decisions about the most fundamental things. I can still remember the turbulence that I found myself experiencing on making the intellectually painful (yet rewarding) transition from atheism to Christianity. Every part of my mental furniture had to be rearranged. Dawkins is correct – unquestionably correct – when he demands that we should not base our lives on delusions. We all need to examine our beliefs – especially if we are naïve enough to think that we don't have any in the first place. But who, I wonder, is really deluded about God? ...our beliefs may be shown to be justifiable, without thereby demonstrating that they are proven... [But] Dawkins insists that Christian belief is "a persistently false belief held in the face of strong contradictory evidence."

(Source: extract adapted from 'The Dawkins Delusion', McGrath, A., Edexcel Anthology)

3	(a)	Clarify McGrath's ideas, illustrated in this passage, about examining our beliefs.
		You must refer to the passage in your response.
