Question 3: Translation

Famous for giving up smoking

In the USA they are looking/searching/on the lookout for 14 young people who are ready to tell the media how they are trying to give up smoking.

Those chosen will also write about their experience in a personal online diary. In addition to giving free help to those chosen to stop smoking this initiative attempts to encourage other people to think of giving up smoking. The specialists in the Health Department think that the reality show format is a good strategy to attract attention especially among younger people.

“Encouraging people to give up smoking and supporting them in their effort to achieve it/this is an important step in the prevention of a great number of illnesses related to the smoking habit and tobacco consumption”, one of the organizers of the project has pointed out/stated/said.
