Tema: La evolución de la sociedad española

El cambio en la estructura familiar

Texto 1

El 3 de julio de 2005 España se convirtió en el tercer país de Europa y el cuarto del mundo en legalizar las uniones entre personas del mismo sexo, abriendo además la posibilidad de adoptar. Desde entonces, han contraído matrimonio en España más de 31 000 parejas homosexuales, de las cuales el 60 % eran parejas de hombres y el 40 % parejas de mujeres. La legalización del matrimonio homosexual pone a las parejas en una situación de igualdad legal con el resto de la ciudadanía.

El matrimonio homosexual es ya algo estable y una realidad consolidada en la sociedad española.

Texto 2

El matrimonio por la iglesia católica en España está perdiendo popularidad hoy en día.

El cambio en la estructura familiar

Texto 1

La violencia contra las mujeres ha existido siempre, pero se ha ocultado durante mucho tiempo. Con frecuencia las mujeres son maltratadas por algún miembro de su propia familia, así que evitan hablar del abuso por miedo o vergüenza. Las mujeres tienen 6 veces más probabilidades de ser agredidas por un familiar que por un desconocido. Según un estudio en España, el 10 % de las mujeres mayores de 18 años se ha sentido maltratado por alguien de su familia alguna vez en la vida.

En años más recientes el número de denuncias a la policía se ha incrementado.

El mundo laboral

Texto 1

En España, desde la aprobación de la Constitución de 1978, se ha intentado eliminar todo trato discriminatorio y promover la igualdad de oportunidades entre los hombres y las mujeres. La presencia de cada vez más mujeres en el mercado laboral y sus logros en la educación muestran avances en la sociedad española.

No obstante, las estadísticas siguen mostrando que todavía persisten importantes desigualdades entre los sexos. Las mujeres siguen estando empleadas mayoritariamente en los sectores peor remunerados. Además, la maternidad afecta negativamente a las tasas de empleo femenino.

Texto 2

Los empresarios aprecian las cualidades que aportan tanto las mujeres como los hombres al mercado laboral.

El mundo laboral

Texto 1

El mercado laboral siempre está cambiando. Cambia por causas económicas, e incluso por razones tecnológicas, pero también cambia según las nuevas necesidades de las personas, especialmente de los trabajadores jóvenes. Sus prioridades ya no son las mismas que las de sus padres a la hora de buscar un trabajo. Estos jóvenes saben que trabajarán más años que las generaciones pasadas, y también entienden que ya no estarán en una misma empresa toda la vida.

Las nuevas generaciones españolas no sólo valoran el salario, sino también la flexibilidad del horario y el tiempo de ocio.

El impacto turístico en España

Texto 1

España es uno de los países que más dependen del turismo. Este sector representa el 10,2 % del Producto Interior Bruto y el 11,5 % del empleo. El turismo aportó 124 000 millones de euros a la economía española en 2015. Las cifras confirman que este sector es el que más crece y el que más empleo genera. Uno de cada siete puestos de trabajo creados en España en 2015 correspondió al sector turístico.

Todos los destinos turísticos aumentan sus ingresos. Dos factores contribuyeron al incremento de la actividad turística: la recuperación de la demanda nacional y la inestabilidad política de los principales competidores, Egipto y Turquía.

El impacto del turismo en España

Texto 1

El turismo en España tiene grandes impactos tanto positivos como negativos. Es una de las industrias más grandes, pero también es una de las que más daña el medio ambiente. Explota recursos naturales, destruye el paisaje y altera ecosistemas. Por ejemplo, los campos de golf requieren mucha agua, se recortan las playas para construir casas y las montañas son coronadas cada vez más por estaciones de esquí.

Sin embargo, con el desarrollo del turismo sostenible o el turismo verde, es posible hacer turismo y cuidar el medio ambiente al mismo tiempo. Por eso es muy importante concienciar a la gente para seguir conservando el medio ambiente.
