Comments on specific questions

Section 1

Question 1

There are five parts to this question, testing the meaning and usage of vocabulary items. Performance on this question was generally poor.

This question seems to be more difficult than the previous year as nobody secured full marks for this question. Only 4 candidates secured the highest 4 marks. (10 candidates secured full marks last year.)

The correct answers for this question are as follows:

- (a) prasiddhi pondinavaaru = peerennika gannavaaru
- (b) eppaTikii = kalakaalam
- (c) meccukunnaaru = pras'aMsiMcaaru
- (d) upayoogakaramaina = prayoojanakaramaina
- (e) neerugaa cuupinMcaayi = pratyakSa prasaaram ceesaayi

Question 2

There are five parts to this question, testing ability to use phrases in sentences and manipulation of grammatical structures. Performance on this question was generally quite poor.

The correct answers for the sub-questions on grammatical manipulations are as follows:

- (d) kaaryakramam preekSakula manassulanu cuuragoni kaligincina anubhuuti kalakaalam nilicipootundi.
- (e) taram vaariloo aa naaTakam looni padyaalu andarikii nooTiki vaccu.

Question 3

This is a set of comprehension questions on an unseen passage, which has a total of 15 marks available for content and 5 marks available for language. Performance here was generally very good.

Section 2

Question 4

This is another set of comprehension questions on an unseen passage, which has a total of 15 marks available for content and 5 marks available for language. Performance here was mixed.

Question 5

This question requires candidates to write a response drawing information from both passages. There are 20 marks available for this question (15 marks for content and 5 marks for language). Performance was quite weak here.

Below is a list of common linguistic errors noted in candidates' responses. Candidates would benefit from further practice in these areas:

[The following broad transcription principles are used when transcribing the Telugu material into Roman script: two letters are used to denote a long vowel, such as aa, ii, uu, ee, and oo; capital letters are used to denote retroflex sounds in Telugu, such as T, D, N, S, and L; the palatal sibilant is transcribed as s'; h is added to the consonant to make it aspirated.]

Paper 8690/03

Essay

Key messages

In order to do well in this paper, candidates need to ensure that they answer the specific question asked and that they understand the focus of the question before beginning to write their answers.

Candidates need to ensure that they expand their answers.

General comments

This is an Essay paper in which candidates are required to compose one essay from a choice of five topics. The essay is marked out of 40, with 16 marks for Content and 24 marks for Quality of Language.

The most popular question this year was Question 5 (on the topic of 'Pollution'). Question 1 and 2 (on the topics of 'Human relationships' and 'Urban and rural life', respectively) were also popular.

Overall, performance on this paper was quite poor. Candidates tended to gain quite good marks for Content but could not be awarded such good marks for Language. They need to improve their language skills in order to gain higher marks.
