Some people believe that it is so important, that you cannot do without it. You find it with young and old, with businessmen as well as house wives. We cannot imagine life without it. The problem now is the type of phone as well as the price. In one of the Arab countries, a mobile phone company offered a mobile phone which cost the equivalent of a full annual salary of an average employee, and yet some people would still buy it. The question is; is it right for someone to spend this amount of money on a mobile, in a country where more than half the population live under the poverty line.	(9)
