Mark Scheme

Mark schemes are prepared by the Principal Examiner and considered, together with the relevant questions, by a panel of subject teachers. This mark scheme includes any amendments made at the standardisation meeting attended by all examiners and is the scheme which was used by them in this examination. The standardisation meeting ensures that the mark scheme covers the candidates' responses to questions and that every examiner understands and applies it in the same correct way. As preparation for the standardisation meeting each examiner analyses a number of candidates' scripts: alternative answers not already covered by the mark scheme are discussed at the meeting and legislated for. If, after this meeting, examiners encounter unusual answers which have not been discussed at the meeting they are required to refer these to the Principal Examiner.

It must be stressed that a mark scheme is a working document, in many cases further developed and expanded on the basis of candidates' reactions to a particular paper. Assumptions about future mark schemes on the basis of one year's document should be avoided; whilst the guiding principles of assessment remain constant, details will change, depending on the content of a particular examination paper.

Further copies of this Mark Scheme are available to download from the AQA Website: www.aqa.org.uk

AS UNIT 1 (PRESCRIBED PLAY) MARK SCHEME

JANUARY 2011

INTRODUCTION

This section of Unit 1 assesses Assessment Objectives 2 and 3.

AO2 requires that candidates “demonstrate knowledge and understanding of practical and theoretical aspects of drama and theatre using appropriate terminology”.

AO3 requires that candidates “interpret plays from different periods and genres”.

AO2 and AO3 have weightings of 10% and 20% respectively.

Questions are marked for each of the two Assessment Objectives separately and then the marks added together to give a total out of 50.

Quality of Written Communication (QWC) is also assessed. All questions require answers written in continuous prose. Statements referring to QWC are included within the assessment criteria for each performance band. QWC will be assessed as an integral part of the judgement of the quality of a candidate’s response.

DRAMA AND THEATRE STUDIES (DRAM1B)

Shorthand/symbols for Examiners

Examiners may use these recognised symbols in the left hand margin of candidates' scripts or in the body of the answers, against relevant points or errors:

relevant or good point = ✓

very good point = ✓✓

dubious point = ?

possible = P

omission = □□

point needs development = and....?

argument difficult to follow/confusion/muddle = } in margin evidence of knowledge = k evidence of understanding = und evidence of practical theatre awareness = pr wrong-headed/silly argument or suggestion = !

repetition = R

irrelevance = Irrel

narrative = NR

factually wrong = X

contradiction = C

practical detail missing = How?

losing focus on question = Q?

wrong word used = WR

poor expression = E

spelling error = rehursal or rehearsal [underline or ring]

example needed = eg?

literary argument = lit

generalised = GR

specialist terminology needed = term?

Examiners may still make fuller comments, as appropriate, in the body or margin of the script and should ALWAYS put a summative comment, at the end of the candidate's answer, which relates clearly to the individual AOs.
