The British Schools Museum, Hitchin

The British Schools Museum is situated in a unique set of buildings and tells the story of elementary education in Britain from 1810 until 1969. Hear about Joseph Lancaster who taught 330 boys in one schoolroom.

We are a hands-on museum – you can touch the exhibits, try dressing up as a 19th century child, and have a lesson with a suitably strict schoolma'am!

There are guided tours by experienced guides. Group visits of between 10 and 40 people must be booked in advance. The visit includes an introductory talk, a taught lesson in the classroom, and light refreshments. We offer a visit specially designed for group visitors with mobility difficulties.

Wicksteed Park

The Park dates back to 1913 when Charles Wicksteed purchased fields with the intention of creating an open space for local families. Many of them lived in homes with no gardens, which forced their children to play in the street.

The Park offers a range of attractions targeted specifically at families with children up to the age of fourteen. We have cameras, and trained staff who patrol the playground.

Enjoy some of the best fishing in the area.

The popular Hexagon café offers a selection of food, drinks and ice creams.

The Park is situated just off the A6 between Barton Seagrave and Kettering.

The attractions are open from 10.30am and close between 4.30pm and 6pm depending on the time of year.

Prices

Adults – single visit	£12.50
Family ticket (up to 3 children)	£35.00
