If you are a visitor to York, you'll never be bored! You'll soon discover that there is so much to do and see. Here are some ways you can spend many happy hours in our fascinating city:

The Minster – The cathedral, built in the Middle Ages, was famous as the largest church north of the Alps. Come and see its wonderful windows!

Castle Museum – Here you can wander through a 19th century street full of shops, and peep into family living rooms of yesteryear. It's a fascinating combination of everyday life and extraordinary objects from 1580 to 1980, a museum well-known for its collection of clothes.

Jorvik Viking Centre – See the lively market and dark, smoke-filled houses of the Viking era. Foreign language audio-guides available.

Afterwards, why not just stroll around the walls of a city with over two thousand years of history?
