Peter Robinson and Martin McGuinness, the First and Deputy First Ministers, have announced how they intend to build a shared future in Northern Ireland. Among the proposals is a target of bringing down all Northern Ireland's Peace Walls by 2023. However, Mr. Robinson said there were a range of other issues such as flags and parading that would need further discussion. The First and Deputy First Ministers announced the setting up of all-party talks to discuss these issues, chaired by an independent chairperson.
