AIMS

The aims of this syllabus are to motivate candidates to develop an enquiring and critical approach to the study of fundamental questions of religious practices, beliefs, morality and interpretations and to explore such issues within the context of a religious tradition or traditions.

To realise the above, candidates will be required to gain some understanding of the religious writings, history and current affairs of Hinduism and be able to think and argue intelligently about the subject.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The examination will test the candidate's:

- | | |
|--|-------|
| (a) knowledge of the topics and specified texts | [60%] |
| (b) understanding of the meaning and significance of the material studied | [25%] |
| (c) ability to express himself/herself explicitly, logically and critically in any argument. | [15%] |

SCHEME OF ASSESSMENT

The examination will consist of one paper of three hours' duration.

The paper will consist of four sections A, B, C and D; candidates will be required to answer five questions, choosing at least one from each section. At least three questions will be set in each section.

The Advanced Subsidiary (AS) Level Paper is the same as Paper 1 of the Advanced Level (9014). Results in the AS Level may not be carried over to the A Level.
