Answer one question.

1 The Arts and History

Choose any television programme (or series of programmes) dealing with the past and evaluate its strengths and weaknesses as an historical interpretation.

2 Economic History

To what extent was economic change the main cause of historical development in the period you have studied?

3 The Individual in History

How far would you agree with the view that the significant achievements of any period you have studied owed more to groups than to individuals?

4 Local History

Assess the usefulness of evidence from a local site for interpreting a similar development on a regional or national scale.

5 Military History

With reference to any battle or campaign you have studied, how far was the outcome attributable to the tactics and strategy employed by the winning side?

6 Political History

With reference to any regime you have studied, assess how far its effectiveness was dependent on the co-operation of a 'political elite'.

7 Religious History

Assess the relative importance of religious factors as a cause of any historical event or conflict you have studied.

8 Science, Technology and History

Assess the relative importance of science and technology in changing the lives of ordinary people in any period you have studied.

9 Social History

To what extent did the growth of towns result in social progress in any period you have studied?

10 World History

'On the whole, the influence of European civilization on other parts of the world has been beneficial.'
How far is this true of any period you have studied?
