

GCE History Coursework Consultancy Service

Our consultants are experienced, senior assessors who can provide further guidance on GCE History coursework including:

- The requirements of the History units
- Choices and combinations of investigations
- Task setting
- Issues of overlap with other units studied at AS and A2.

Please think carefully about the tasks you are planning to set before submitting your ideas to OCR.

Additional support

Coursework consultants can offer advice and feedback on coursework proposals, but it is not a requirement to get tasks 'approved'.
