A.M. WEDNESDAY, 9 January 2013

2½ hours

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

In addition to this examination paper, you will need:

- a 12 page answer book;
- to view an audio-visual extract.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Use black ink or black ball-point pen.

Answer all three questions.

Read the questions so that you are familiar with their requirements. You will be given three minutes for this at the beginning of the examination. This reading time is part of the 2½ hours you will have available for the examination.

Audio-visual extract

The audio-visual extract will be played three times.

For the first viewing just watch and listen.

During the second viewing you may make notes.

You will then be allowed ten minutes to make further notes and to think about your answers to the questions.

During the third and final viewing you may make additional notes.

You should spend approximately 50 minutes completing your answer to Question 1.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part question.

You are reminded that assessment will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers.

Answer all three questions.

Study the opening sequence from the BBC historical drama Great Expectations (BBC, 2011). This shows a young boy who is forced to help an escaped prisoner.

1. Analyse the extract commenting on:

- visual codes
- technical and audio codes
- genre conventions.

[40]

2. (a) Suggest two different audiences for this BBC drama. Give brief reasons for your suggestions. [6]

(b) Explore how this opening sequence appeals to one of these audiences. [9]

(c) With reference to your own detailed examples, explore how audiences are categorised by the producers of media texts. [15]

3. With reference to your own detailed examples, explore the representation of young people in the media today. [30]

INSTRUCTIONS TO CENTRES

For this examination, candidates are required to view a short audio-visual extract. The extract will be available on DVD.

Centres need to provide replay and viewing facilities for candidates and ensure that conditions in the examination room are adequate.

An examinations officer and/or a technical support assistant, under conditions of strict confidentiality, must check the DVD before Wednesday 17 December 2012 at the latest to ensure that there are no faults. If replacement copies are needed, please email the Despatch unit of WJEC (despatchqueries@wjec.co.uk). Replacement copies will be sent in the first week of January at the latest.

Please send back any faulty DVD(s), with a confirmation of the centre number and a brief description of the fault, to Leah Crowley, WJEC, 245 Western Avenue, CARDIFF CF5 2YX.

Please note that DVDs may be retained by centres to enable students to see the standards required for this unit and to practise examination techniques.

INSTRUCTIONS TO INVIGILATORS

1. Candidates must be allowed to read the Examination Paper before the DVD is played. This reading time is included in the 2½ hours available for the examination.
2. Play the DVD which is provided. All instructions needed by candidates are on the paper and on the DVD.
3. DO NOT SWITCH OFF THE DVD UNTIL THE EXTRACT HAS BEEN PLAYED THREE TIMES. (This will take approximately 25 minutes.)
4. Candidates have the remaining time (approximately 2 hours) to complete the examination.
