ENGLAND'S NORTH WEST

*Scenery, history, fishing, bird-watching, opera, sport, architecture
– there's something for everyone.*

Liverpool, on the River Mersey, has a cultural scene rivalled by few other places. It is the home of the most famous pop band in history, one of the world's best-known football teams and a range of attractions that make a visit a must.

But that's only part of our rich and exciting region.

Cumbria and the majestic Lake District offer the chance to rest and relax in some of the UK's most beautiful countryside.

Manchester's galleries and museums, a range of theatres, clubs, bars and other attractions occupy your time – day and night.

Lancashire is home to the City of Lancaster, the rugged Pennine hills and the seaside resorts of Blackpool and Morecambe. Cheshire, with its hills and plains, boasts the historic Roman City of Chester.
