

VCE VET HOSPITALITY

The VCE VET Hospitality program is designed to provide students with training and skill development for the achievement of competence in food and beverage service and/or commercial cookery. The program will also provide access to a range of potential career paths within the hospitality industry.

What qualification will I receive?

If you satisfactorily complete the VCE VET Hospitality program, you will receive the SIT20207 Certificate II in Hospitality and a statement of attainment for selected units of competence from SIT30707 Certificate III in Hospitality and/or the SIT20307 Certificate II in Hospitality (Kitchen Operations). These nationally recognised qualifications are issued by the Registered Training Organisation (RTO).

What will I learn?

For Program 1 Certificate II in Hospitality: The VCE VET Units 1 and 2 core units of competence include health, safety and security procedures, workplace hygiene, developing and updating hospitality industry knowledge, serving food and beverage to customers and organising and preparing food. Elective units include providing visitor information, quality customer service, cleaning premises and equipment, receiving and storing stock and point-of-sale handling procedures.

The VCE VET Unit 3 and 4 sequence incorporates core units such as providing food and beverage service, preparing and serving non-alcoholic beverages, responsible service of alcohol and preparing and serving espresso coffee.

For Program 2 Certificate II in Hospitality (Kitchen Operations): VCE VET Units 1 and 2 core units of competence include health, safety and security procedures, workplace hygiene, working with colleagues and customers, basic methods of cookery, receiving and storing kitchen supplies, and presenting food.

The VCE VET Unit 3 and 4 sequence incorporates core units including preparing, cooking and serving food for service, and specific preparation of appetisers and salads, stocks, sauces and soups, and desserts.

What credit will I receive towards my VCE or VCAL?

VCE

You will be eligible for credit of up to five VCE VET units towards your VCE: up to three units at Units 1 and 2 level and a Unit 3 and 4 sequence for each qualification in this program.

A Study Score is available for each qualification in this program, each can contribute directly to your ENTER - either as one of your best four studies ('the primary four') or as your fifth or sixth study.

VCAL

The VCE VET Hospitality program (either partial or full completion) may contribute at the Foundation, Intermediate or Senior levels.

What career and/or employment opportunities will I have?

The VCE VET Hospitality may provide employment opportunities in a variety of roles including food and beverage attendant, bar/bottle shop attendant, front office/receptionist, catering assistant, kitchen hand, cook's assistant or short order cook.
