Answer 3

2003/04 – 12 months to 30 September 2003 20,000

2004/05 – $(18,000 + 30,000) \div 2$ 24,000

(As profits in the year to 30 September 2004 do not exceed 70% of the profits for the year to 30 September 2005, full averaging relief is available.)

2005/06 - Profits in the year to 30 September 2006 are between 70% and 75% of the averaged figure of £24,000. Adjustment will be:

$$3(24,000 - 17,500) - \frac{3}{4}(24,000)$$

$$19,500 - 18,000 = 1,500$$

Answer 9

When a close company makes a loan to a participator, the company must make a notional tax payment equivalent to 25% of the loan (S419 tax)

Once the loan is repaid, H M Revenue and Customs will repay the tax.

The notional tax payment is due 9 months and 1 day after the end of the accounting period (1 October 2007).

The tax will be refunded 9 months and 1 day after the end of the accounting period in which the loan is repaid (1 October 2008).

Answer 10

Post cessation receipts should be included in the final computation of trade profits and taxed in the final year of assessment.

If income is received after cessation, and not included in the final computation of trade profits, the income will be taxed as other income in the year of receipt.

Answer 11

When a company commences to trade.

When a company first comes within the charge to corporation tax.

Immediately after the previous accounting period finishes.

On the commencement of winding up.

Answer 12

A restrictive covenant is a legally binding agreement which restrains a person from taking a specified course of action – e.g. it may prevent an employee from leaving to join a competitor within a given period.

The amount received by the employee will be taxed as employment income in the year of payment.

The payment made is a fully tax deductible trading expense.

Answer 13

A company is associated with another if one controls the other or both are under the control of the same person.

Whether such a company is UK resident or not is irrelevant

Control is deemed to be given by holding over 50% of the issued share capital or voting rights, or being entitled to over 50% of the distributable profits or assets on a winding up.

Dormant companies are ignored.

Therefore Vital Limited has two associated companies, Vitax Limited and Vitrois SARL.

Answer 14

Companies limited by guarantee are companies that have no share capital. The liability of the members is limited to the amount that they undertake to contribute in the event of a winding up.

The liability of a member of a limited company (whether private or public) is limited to the amount unpaid on their shares.

The shares of a private company cannot be offered to the public, whereas those of a public company can.

A public company must have a minimum allotted share capital of £50,000 of which at least one quarter must be paid up.

Answer 15

The share capital account records the nominal value of fully paid shares issued at the Balance Sheet date.

The share premium account records an amount equivalent to the difference between the price at which the shares are issued and their nominal value i.e. the premium. For example a £1 share issued at a value of £3, will have a premium of £2.

Distributable reserves are those reserves which can be paid out to the member of a company (such as profit and loss reserves). Non distributable reserves cannot be paid out e.g. a surplus on a revaluation reserve.

The profit for assessment is therefore £120,000 (125,925-5,925).

The profits of the partnership are now split as follows:

| TOTAL for period to 30.06.06 | | £23,090 | £24,990 | £11,920 |

Trading income assessments for 2006/07 are:

Jessica £43,290
Melissa £47,090
Liam £29,620

Part 2

In the absence of a formal partnership agreement, a partnership will be dealt with under Partnership Act 1890.

PA 1890 provides that:

Unanimity is required to expel a partner

The partnership will dissolve automatically on the death or retirement of a partner

All partners are entitled to take part in the management of the business.

Profits and losses are shared equally

No interest is to be paid on the partners' original capital

Partners are entitled to 5% interest on advances in excess of their original capital investment.

Answer 2

Part 1

Withholding tax is a direct tax imposed at source by the overseas country. It is always potentially recoverable.

Underlying tax is the overseas equivalent of corporation tax. It applies where a UK company receives a dividend from a foreign company in which it holds at least 10% of the voting power.

The net amount of dividend paid to BB Ltd will be $70\% \times £35,000 \times 95\% = £23,275$.

The dividend must be grossed up for inclusion as foreign income in BB Ltd's PCTCT for the year ended 31 December 2006:

$£23,275 \times 100/95 = £24,500 \times 100/(100-24) = £32,237$.

Relief will be available for both the withholding tax (£1,225) and underlying tax (£7,737) as the overseas tax suffered is less than the UK CT on that source of income.

Part 2

|---------------------------|-----------------|
| Cost | 750,000 |
| Less Land | (450,000) |
| Legal Cost | (25,000) |
| Potential Qualifying Cost | 275,000 |

General office allowed if cost is less than 25% of potential qualifying cost.

$$\begin{array}{lcl} 275,000 \times 25\% & = & 68,750 \\ \text{Offices} & = & 50,000 \end{array}$$

Therefore offices qualify

IBAs £275,000 @ 4% = 11,000

Part 3

Professional Privilege concerns the confidentiality which advisers have in relation to papers, documents and other communications which have come into their possession as a result of their relationship with a client.

As a general rule, professional advisers are under no duty to disclose client's details, due to the confidentiality between adviser and client.

However, there are exceptions to this rule, where an adviser will disclose information without the prior consent of the client. These circumstances are where disclosure is:

- in the public interest.
- required under statutory authority, such as Acts of Parliament.
- required by court order.

Part 4

Tax avoidance is the use of legitimate means to reduce the amount of tax paid, for example, ISAs. Avoidance is legal, provided that the sole purpose of an arrangement is not to avoid tax.

Tax evasion is illegal and a taxpayer who falsifies information to reduce his tax liability may be subject to criminal penalties or investigation.

2. Candidates would also be rewarded for mentioning that reasonable loan arrangement fees are deductible in the year of payment. (HMRC view 'reasonable' as a few basis points only. A basis point is equal to 0.01%.)

Long form answer 4 – 1b)

Any interest must be paid with deduction of 20% tax at source

The tax deducted must be paid over to HMRC under the CT61 regime on a quarterly basis. The quarter dates are 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December. In addition as the year end is 31 January there is a further return period.

The interest will be deductible for corporation tax purposes provided paid in or within 12 months of accounting period if accrued therein.

Dividends can only be paid if the company has sufficient distributable reserves

Dividends must be voted by directors in general meeting and can be interim or final in nature. A final dividend can only be voted at an AGM rather than a general meeting.

Dividends are not deductible for corporation tax purposes.
