Important Guidelines

In pursuing its educational objectives, AKU-EB strives to empower its candidates by fostering inquiry, critical thinking, creative and responsible problem-solving, tolerance and respect, and an understanding of the complex challenges faced by our country today. It also strives to find ways in increasing access to such type of quality education.

AKU-EB Bridge Scholarship is a step towards these objectives. The Scholarship will enable deserving candidates to achieve their educational goals and actively contribute toward the success of Pakistan as part of the skilled workforce.

Please fill out the following form, co-signed by the school's principal and give it to the student in a sealed envelope with the school's official stamp. The student will then send it to AKU-EB.

Your frank assessment of the student would be invaluable in helping the selection committee make an informed decision. If you have any questions, please contact us at examination.board@aku.edu. Many thanks for your help.
