The council wants to develop cycling and the existing 'Cycle to work' scheme. The council has enough money to fund this development and wants the cycling club to promote cycling for people of all ages. The cycling club currently offers training rides, coaching, time trials, racing and recreational rides. The club facilities include a small temporary building located in the town's park, separate changing facilities for men and women and a room used for meetings.

As well as your cycling club, there are other sports clubs in the town. There are also colleges, primary and secondary schools that the council wants to become more involved with cycling.
