English Listening Comprehension Procedures

Time: 30 minutes

Teachers' Booklet

Note:

The English Listening Procedures are included in the audio CD and candidates are expected to listen to the audio CD recordings during the listening component. This booklet, which includes the instructions, texts and tasks set, is to be read by teachers ONLY when the audio CD does not function properly.

Procedures for Task One

Track 1: (9 minutes 57 seconds)

Look at Task One.

(Allow a 15 second pause while students familiarise themselves with the task.)

Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

You are going to hear two dialogues where people are asking for directions. In the first dialogue, John is asking a policewoman for directions. In the second dialogue, the same policewoman is giving directions to Clare.

Dialogue 1

(John):	Excuse me. How can I get to the Bank, please?
(Policewoman):	Right. First you have to walk back up St John's Street until you come to the Post Office, at the corner with Tower Road. Walk down Tower Road until you come to the first traffic lights. Cross the street over there, turn right and keep on walking until you reach the bus terminus. Take the first turning on your right. You'll find yourself in Blossoms Square. The Bank is right in front of you. You can't miss it, as it is quite a large building.
(John):	Thank you. How long will it take me to get there?
(Policewoman):	Oh, it's no distance at all, just about five minutes on foot.
(John):	Thanks again.
(Policewoman):	Oh, you're welcome.

Dialogue 2

(Policewoman):	Excuse me, but you seem to be lost. How can I help you?
(Clare):	Yes actually, I am lost. Could you please show me how I can get to the Youth Centre?
(Policewoman):	Ok. We are in the Main Square. So, first you have to cross to the other side. Do so at the traffic lights, then turn left and take the first turning on your right. You'll find yourself in Farmers' Street. Walk down and go past the Chemist's and past the Stationer's on the corner. Turn into Fishermen's Street and walk straight on, past St Mary's Church. The Youth Centre is the building near the church. It's easy to find it as usually at this time of day there are many young people in front of it, waiting for it to open.
(Clare):	Thank you so much. I'm sure I'll be able to find the Centre now.
(Policewoman):	You're welcome.

Listen to the sentences and underline the correct word or phrase in the brackets.

(Include a 4 second pause after each number.)

This is the end of Task One. (Allow a 30 second pause between Task 1 and Task 2.)

Procedures for Task Two

Track 2: (16 minutes 1second)

Look at the four exercises for Task Two.

(Allow a 50 second pause while students familiarise themselves with the four exercises.)

Listen carefully. You will hear the recording twice.

You are going to hear Nicole talking about her trip to Italy. She went there with her best friend Elena. If you wish, you may start the exercises as you listen.

We arrived in the land of beautiful cities on a warm Sunday morning in July. It was our first visit to Italy and we were very excited about our holiday. Both Elena and I loved the Italian language as well as Italian food.

A taxi took us straight from the airport to our small but comfortable hotel in Verona. We unpacked our bags and changed into a pair of jeans, a short-sleeved shirt and a pair of running shoes. We asked the hotel receptionist for directions to the city centre. She was very helpful and really friendly. We walked for about twenty minutes until we reached one of the many squares.

It was a very busy centre with hundreds of people walking about the streets of Verona. Verona is a popular city, known as the city of Romeo and Juliet. The city was very welcoming. The place was crowded with tourists and Italians who were sitting at tables, either drinking or eating or talking, at the many coffee shops and restaurants in the square. This was not a surprise at all because we knew that Italians love to get together for a meal or for a chat with friends. We had lunch in the square and then we explored the city on foot. We drank plenty of water as the temperature was quite high. Every now and then, we put lotion to protect our skin from the sun.

We spent the next couple of days visiting a number of important buildings such as the famous Cathedral of Verona, the house where Juliet lived, a castle filled with paintings and other works of art, as well as a museum. We were amazed by the beauty of these historical places. Our favourite spot was definitely the balcony in Juliet's house from where Juliet is said to have spoken to Romeo some 800 years ago.

We left Verona to go to Venice – the city of gondolas and canals. As soon as we arrived, we liked the small, traffic-free streets along the winding canals. We walked around the beautiful city of Venice, stopping every few minutes to stare at the magnificent churches and palaces. We couldn't miss a ride in one of the gondolas. I cannot forget the wonderful feeling of passing underneath the bridges as our boat drifted along the narrow canals of Venice.

All in all, I feel that our holiday was a great experience for both of us and we cannot wait for our next chance to visit Italy once again.
