The Lynx

Fast ferry service across Cook Strait

The Lynx is Tranz Rail's fast ferry option in addition to The Interislander in the summer months (December through to April) and will get you across Cook Strait in just 135 minutes. The Lynx offers a quick and comfortable ride between the North and South Island, so you make the most of your journey away.

Relax onboard in the comfortable seating and receive at-seat service or if you choose to take a look around, you'll see the onboard café serving a variety of local food, hot and cold snacks, main meals and treats for the kids. A selection of New Zealand wines, beers and spirits as well as non-alcoholic beverages is available from the fully stocked bar or café.

Onboard you will also find a children's play area to keep the kids occupied during the journey with an entertaining video, along with video games for kids of all ages.

The Lynx also has a TV channel screened on the onboard television screens throughout the ship. The ship shop caters for your travel needs with confectionery, souvenirs and travel accessories.

The Lynx offers a wide range of day trip and short escape package options to Marlborough, Nelson, Kaikoura, Hanmer Springs and Abel Tasman National Park. These packages include transfers, a range of accommodation and own car options. Enough choice to suit everyone.

For more information on The Lynx's range of fares, times and package deals, contact us today.
