In the deepening twilight three figures were walking across the lawn towards the window : they all carried guns under their arms and one of them was additionally burdened with a white coat hung over his shoulders. A tired brown spaniel kept close at their heels. Noiselessly they neared the house and then a hoarse young voice chanted out of the dust ; I said, Bertie, why do you bound ?

Framton grabbed wildly at his stick and hat ; the hall-door, the gravel-drive and the front gate were dimly-noted stages in his headlong retreat. A cyclist coming along the road had to run into the hedge to avoid an imminent collision.

Questions :

7. How many figures were across the lawn ?
 8. What did they carry ?
 9. What is a spaniel ?
 10. Why was Framton scared ?
 11. Did Framton collide with the cyclist ?

- The Chinese were the first to make gunpowder, invent the magnetic compass and gave to the world the art of making paper. About 2000 years ago the Chinese made gunpowder by mixing sulphur and saltpetre. The mixture exploded when set on fire. The Chinese were the first to find out the fact that a narrow magnet floating in a bowl of water would always point to the north. The discovery led to the invention of magnetic compass. This device helped the sailors to find out the direction when they were out of sight of land. The Chinese also invented the art of making paper during the second century. Soon the art of making paper using vegetable pulp reached Arabia, Spain and Europe. In course of time paper factories came into existence. The fourth invention of the Chinese was the art of printing. Before this invention books were written by hand. The Chinese invented the art of printing with movable types. With this invention reading and learning became open to ordinary people as they were able to print books in large numbers.
