Task 3

You wrote to your housing association recently because you want to move home as soon as possible. This is part of the letter the housing association sent to you.

Thank you for your letter asking for new housing. Could you explain what the problem is with your present accommodation and why you want to move to another part of the town?

It may take 12 months to find new accommodation.

Yours sincerely John Burns Housing Manager

Write a letter to Mr Burns answering his questions and explaining that you want to move to different accommodation very soon.

Write about 120 words. You do not need to write the address or the date.
