Shaky Torch – Just shake to power

↑
 SIMPLY SHAKE UP
 & DOWN
 TO POWER
 ↓

This torch will never leave you in the dark – just shake it! The shaking flashlight requires neither battery nor electricity. Simply shake it to provide all the light you need as it transforms the movement into electrical energy by means of a magnet – the ‘Faraday’ effect. The energy produced is stored in an accumulator that can be recharged thousands of times. Shaking for one minute provides about 30 minutes of continuous bright light using the single LED, or more than 12 minutes using all three LEDs. It is extremely strong and is waterproof to a depth of 2.5 metres.
