Q. 6 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions appended to it:

Along with the advent of fast foods and suburban living came the need for a new style of shopping, one which would reflect the emerging lifestyles of modern living. With these new trends came the necessity for shopping malls. Most Americans today prefer to shop at such malls because of their convenience and accessibility. Flanked by huge parking lots the many shops and stores offer a wide variety of merchandise in differently priced categories. Usually there is a main department store and numerous boutiques and smaller shops specializing in specific goods. Within every mall there are even banks which offer a full supply of services for the consumer. Shopping at such places provides a wealth of activities for all members of the family. Its is possible to visit a mall and spend the whole day without exhausting all there is to offer. Seasonal themes are celebrated with art exhibits and talent shows. Occasionally there may even be contests and raffles to lure the customers to stay longer and enjoy their leisure once the business of the day is finished.

Questions:

- (i) What is the new style of shopping? (2)
- (ii) Why do most Americans prefer to shop in Malls rather than department stores? (2)
- (iii) In addition to shopping what else can be done at a shopping mall? (2)
- (iv) Summarise the passage in about 1/3 of its length and give it a suitable title. (6)
