1 You see the following letter in The Sentinel, a local newspaper.

Buggies and Prams a Menace on the Bus

Dear Editor,

I am a 64-year-old disabled pensioner who has never made a complaint to any newspaper but I am so frustrated I cannot think of what else I can do.

Whenever I get on a bus my path is obstructed by buggies and prams and once or twice I have nearly fallen over. At my age and with my disability, this could be serious. It is even worse in the afternoons.

I have nothing against taking babies or children on the bus, but feel there is a need for some action to allow other passengers to manage.

My solution? Ban prams and buggies on some of our buses. Let's have a pram-free bus for once!

Yours sincerely,
Mrs Sally Edward
