You have read the following on the Bramby.com website:

Here at the Bramby Community Forum, we'd love to know what inspired you during lockdown.

Was it that box set that had you gripped? Or that new album that you couldn't stop listening to? Did you get heavily involved in a compelling book?

Did you watch a special film that worked its magic? Was it a sporting event that captured your imagination?

We want others to share your experience and we hope to post an anthology of the best reports so that others can benefit.

Go online to Bramby.com and submit your report.

You want to take part in the Bramby.com forum.

Write a report about something that inspired you during lockdown.

Your report should be between 150 and 200 words.

Remember to:

- plan your answer
- use correct spelling, punctuation and grammar
- write clearly and effectively.
