Subject: Community Arts group

Attachment: Advert.doc

Hi

How are you? I have been finding out about the Community Arts group in our town as I am thinking of joining. The group started here three years ago. During this time they have organised lots of different projects and put on shows at local hospitals and schools. They raise money for charities and work with the young and disadvantaged. They have recently introduced story telling in the local library.

Why don't we get involved? As well as doing something good for our community we could learn lots of new skills. They run drama, dance and music workshops and are also starting workshops in costume and make-up this year. Workshops usually take place two evenings a week and sometimes on a Saturday. There are also some extra meetings when needed for special projects.

There is a meeting next Saturday morning at the Community Leisure Centre for anyone wishing to join. I am going to this so why don't you come with me? They don't turn anyone away and you don't need any previous experience. Everyone has the chance to develop skills and confidence and to find the area that suits them best. It sounds a great opportunity, we will meet lots of new people and it should be fun!

How about it? We can go along together.

By the way, I have also attached the advert for the London Theatre Breaks as promised. Have a look through it and let me know if you are interested.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Sam
