You want to visit the London Eye and go to their website to find out more information.

THE LONDON EYE

The London Eye is the largest Ferris wheel in Europe.

It was opened to the public in 2000.

It is on the South Bank of the River Thames, between Westminster Bridge and Hungerford Bridge.

The nearest underground stations are Waterloo and Westminster.

London River Services, run by Thames Clipper and City Cruises, stop at the nearby Millennium Pier.

Opening times:

Winter: October – March

10 am – 8.30 pm

Summer: April, May, June and September

10 am – 9 pm

Summer: July and August

10 am – 9.30 pm

Closed: Christmas Day
