PEARSON

Task 1

Your school / college / workplace organised a visit to a large department store.

Scott Webster, the assistant manager, showed you around the different sales departments, customer service and the cafe.

You were given lunch in the staff canteen and then spent some time in one of the departments. Everyone was very friendly and helpful. It was a most enjoyable and useful visit.

Write a letter to thank Scott Webster for your visit.

In your letter you should include:

- why you are writing
- details of the visit
- what you liked best about the visit.

Plan and draft your writing before you write your final response.

In your final response write complete sentences using joining words (conjunctions) e.g. and, as, but, or.

Check your spellings.

Remember to use capital letters, full stops and question marks where you need to.

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, typical of notebook or legal stationery. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.
