Advice for Carers

Caring for someone is both difficult and rewarding. Are you looking after a partner, child, relative, friend or neighbour? Did you have to give up your job to do this? Does the person rely on you for their everyday care?

If the answer to these questions is yes, then here is some advice:

- take care of your own health
- eat well
- find time to relax
- have a break
- make sure you can get information, advice and support.

At Rowsley Carers' Centre we are here to help you. As long as you live in Rowsley Borough, we can offer you free services and support.

Call us today on 017 529 142 or 017 426 976. You can also drop in to our centre at Mewley Drive, Monday to Friday between 10 am and 3 pm.

SUPPORT FOR CARERS IN ROWSLEY

At Rowsley Carer's Centre we are here to help you. If you are a carer for someone who is frail, disabled or ill, we can offer you many services.

Information and Advice

You may need special equipment. We have people who can show you how to use it. We can give advice about the best way to care for people with disabilities.

Need a Break

If you need a break for a day or a short holiday we can send somebody to replace you. Remember, your health is important too!

Benefits Advice

As a carer you may qualify for benefits. Or the person you are caring for may be able to apply for them. We can advise you.

Legal Advice

If you, or the person you care for, have any legal problems we can send somebody to help you.

For more information call 017 529 142 or 017 426 976.
