GATE Exam

T Bhattacharya
AIR 81, ME
GATE 2008

"I have taken Classroom Coaching and Test Series from Gateforum. It has motivated me to get a good ranking in GATE and it has been a great inspiration for me. Gateforum has given me lot of inspiration and has been a regular guide to me."

P R Ramesh Rao
AIR 1, CS
GATE 2008

"The Test Series is a good simulation of the actual GATE exam. The section wise analysis of the performance is very useful to understand the strong and weak areas in the subject."

R Gujrati
GATE 2008

"The questions in the Gateforum Test Series were excellent, particularly the numericals. I benefited greatly from the Test Series."

The Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) is an All-India Examination conducted by the seven Indian Institutes of Technology and the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, on behalf of the National Coordinating Board - GATE, Department of Education, Ministry of Human Resources Development (MHRD), Government of India. Over 300 institutes accept GATE scores for admission to PG Programmes.

Apart from admission in institutions like IISc, IITs, NITs various research labs like DRDO, ISRO and CSIR labs give preference to candidates with high GATE scores.

Eligibility for GATE

The following categories of candidates are eligible to appear in GATE 2009:

1. Bachelor's degree holders in Engineering/Technology/Architecture/Pharmacy and those who are in the final or pre-final year of such programmes.
2. Master's degree holders in any branch of Science/Mathematics/Statistics/Computer Applications or equivalent and those who are in the final or pre-final year of such programmes.
3. Candidates in the second or higher year of the Four-year Integrated Master's degree programme (Post-B.Sc.) in Engineering/Technology or in the third or higher year of Five-year Integrated Master's degree programme and Dual Degree programme in Engineering/Technology.
4. Candidates with qualifications obtained through examination conducted by professional societies recognised by UPSC/AICTE (e.g. AMIE) as equivalent to B.E./B.Tech. Those who have completed Section A or equivalent of such professional courses are also eligible.

How to Apply

The sale of GATE Application Form and Brochure starts around 15th of September and closes by October 31st. You can apply online or offline. The Fees* is around Rs.1000 for General and Rs.500 for SC/ST categories (lesser for online).

GATE Paper Structure

GATE Paper has 85 objective type Questions - 20 one marks, 55 two marks, and 10 linked questions of two marks each. The questions types vary from simple to Common Data Based, Assertion Reasoning, Linked, Match the following etc. There is negative marking.

GATE Prospects

Doing your M.Tech in premier institutes opens your world to the best of the tech-oriented jobs in the best of the companies. Shedding conventional wisdom, an increasing number of companies have been preferring M.Techs over B.Techs for the best of the jobs. Candidates with high GATE scores are preferred in companies like BARC, NPCIL, HAL, etc. With more and more companies following this trend, we believe that M.Tech has a very bright future in India and abroad.

* varies from year to year.

They helped me a lot through their Test Series and the question papers were excellent and up to the mark. They helped me excellently in my preparation for GATE and without their help I wouldn't have gone so far. And I would like to ask all aspirants to get hold of Gateforum's help to enable them a bright future."

Online Discussion Forum

Free for All

Gatementor our Discussion Forum for GATE is the largest online forum to discuss Technical Queries related to any Engineering subject. The Forum has been live for over a year, and has thousands of users.

This forum is meant to be an online meeting place for a lot of people who want to discuss various specializations and their futures, upcoming technologies, various IITs, GATE institutes, life at various IITs, issues related to education, etc. This forum is not meant to be a place to just post your doubts. Since this is a forum, the common way is to first make friends, answer their queries and then get your queries answered. Because 99% of your queries are going to be answered by your fellow engineers, it helps to spend some time answering their queries as well.

Starting 2008, GATEFORUM has started a section dedicated to enrolled students. This section is moderated by IIT and IISc alumni and our faculty, and the assured replies to most of the queries posted in this section of Online Discussion forum.
