DOCUMENT 1

VIEWS ON BEING TRULY BRITISH OR TRULY SCOTTISH – SURVEY OF PEOPLE LIVING IN SCOTLAND, Feb 2004.

People living in Scotland were asked if they agreed with the statements below:		Views of white people born in Scotland and living in Scotland	Views of white people born in England but living in Scotland	Views of people of Pakistani origin living in Scotland
TO BE TRULY BRITISH ...	... you must be born in Britain.	67%	39%	19%
	... you must have British parents.		32%	8%
	... you must be white.	15%	8%	3%
TO BE TRULY SCOTTISH ...	... you must be born in Scotland.	64%	43%	20%
	... you must have Scottish parents.		36%	9%
	... you must be white.	18%	14%	2%

12 Study each of the statements below.

Put a ring around the number of the response (i, ii, iii, OR iv) that gives the best description of the information shown in the table above (Document 1).

- (i) Most white people born in Scotland think that you must be born in Scotland to be truly Scottish. Most other people living in Scotland agree.
- (ii) All people living in Scotland think that being white is the most important factor in being truly British.
- (iii) Most white people born in England and people of Pakistani origin living in Scotland think that, to be truly Scottish, you need Scottish parents.
- (iv) Most people of Pakistani origin living in Scotland think that skin colour, parents' birthplace and the place you were born are not important when it comes to being "truly British". [1]

13 Study each of the statements below.

Put a ring around the number of the response (i, ii, iii OR iv) that gives the best reason why the survey might not be an accurate way of finding out the views of people living in Scotland about Britishness.

- (i) The survey includes only three factors to decide whether someone is truly British.
- (ii) The survey doesn't include people born in England.
- (iii) The survey ignores the views of different ethnic groups.
- (iv) The survey only includes people living in Scotland.

[1]

14 Explain why shared British values are important in helping to increase community cohesion in the United Kingdom (UK).

In your answer you should:

- Describe at least TWO values linked with being British.
- Explain the reasons why these values are important in increasing community cohesion.
