

SEE DRAMA DIFFERENTLY.

Drama with a difference

All the world's a stage, and our GCSE Drama qualification will prepare your learners for the role of a lifetime by providing them with the skills to communicate clearly and confidently, work closely with others and perform under pressure.

Putting your learners centre stage

Our GCSE Drama qualification will equip your learners with a range of skills much sought after in the wider world of work and education. It will:

- Develop ways of communicating confidently and creatively
- Encourage co-operation and the understanding of others
- Provide the skills of working with others – learners can choose to work individually, in pairs or in a group for all units
- Introduce the tools and the language of drama
- Look at actions and their consequences in a dramatic setting
- Explore the creative work of the designer, deviser and director... as well as the performer
- Enable progress to our A Level Performing Arts and Performance Studies.

Learning through doing

Taking an enjoyable and practical approach to Drama, this qualification not only covers the art of performance, but it also comprises a wide variety of exciting topics. For example:

- From Page to Stage: Follow the journey of a piece of writing as it is brought to life before an audience.
- Drama in the Making: Examine the key principles and concepts of devising a piece of drama from stimulus material.
- From Concept to Creation: Take a brief for the deviser, designer, director or performer, and transform it into reality.
