3b.

The writer creates a sense of mystery in the extract by some of the words that Beryl does like 'she spoke in low eager voice' and then all of a sudden she tells Stapleton to go back to London. The writer also uses words like Cyclopes.

3c.

From the extract you can learn that Miss Stapleton is completely different to Stapleton because she is more darker brunette than he is. However what we can learn about the character of Miss Stapleton is that she seems nice but she is a little bit of a player and there is something mysterious about her.

3d. A sense of mystery is created in another part of the book by Mr Holmes walking into Baskerville Hall for the first time and looking at the portrait of Stapleton who he thinks looks a little bit like Sir Henry.

13 from a binde and a box. The incident involving Crooks, Lennie, Candy and Curley's wife is that Curley's wife goes over to Lennie and starts talking to him almost as she is flirting with him. Then she asks him what's happened to your face and how did he get them bruises, but Lennie just looks ~~and~~ at Candy then puts his head down and says he got his hand caught on a machine. Curley's wife says to Lennie ok machine, I'll talk to you later I like machines. Candy broke in 'you let this guy alone. Don't you do no messing around with him. Crooks stood up from his bunk and faced her. I had enough he said coldly. You aint got no rights comin' in a coloured man's room. Curley's wife shout to Crooks Listen nigger, you know what I can do to you if you open your trap.
